

Wanting It To Happen

You accomplish something and Time comes in.
So forget it, at least for a while. If there's a payoff, return, 'll arrive

when you don't expect a thing, mired at point of fact in the day-after-day.

So make a little toot.
Expose yourself to boot,

then again, catch the drift and bite
the fuckin bullet
